Meet Cameron

Hey there, I'm Cameron! A Charleston wedding photographer who loves southern weddings, tables lined with eucalyptus, flowing cathedral veils, and the smell of champagne. I'm a curly haired Charleston native and can usually be found playing with my dog, working on a DIY project, or planning my own wedding with my high school sweetheart.

For me, being a wedding photographer means so much more than just taking pretty pictures. It means being a story teller and preserving that story for generations to enjoy. If you want a photographer who wants to get to know you, will help you bustle your dress, tie your groom's bow tie, tear up during your first dance, and capture timeless images you'll want to look back on for the rest of your life, I'm your girl!

Frequently Asked Questions

What is your style?

I love simple, clean cut images that really showcase your wedding. My favorite photos are the candid ones you're completely unaware I'm taking. To me, those are some of the best and most intimate images.

How far in advance should we book?

Most couples book as early as one year before their wedding. Don't sweat it if your wedding is coming up sooner, contact me to see if your date is available!

What equipment do you use?

I use top of the line Nikon cameras and lenses and always have backup equipment, batteries, and memory cards.

Do you deliver images in black and white or color?

Most images will be delivered in color but in some cases, I will select a few to include in black and white. If there are any black and white images in your delivery, I also include their color equivalent.

Will there be a contract?

Yes! A signed wedding photography contract is required to book your date.

Do you retouch images?

Absolutely! Every image you receive has been processed, one by one, for color correction, slight enhancing, and small blemish touch ups. I strive to keep your images looking clean and professional.

Can we see a full wedding delivery?

Of course! I'd love to show you what you can expect from your collection of wedding day images.

How soon will we receive our images?

Images are delivered in 4-6 weeks depending on my schedule and your wedding length.

Can you recommend any other vendors?

Of course! I've worked with some amazing people and would love to recommend them!

THE NEXT STEPS

Ready to book?

After we have decided we're a good fit, all you need to do is sign the wedding day contract and pay the 40% retainer fee to reserve your date. Your remaining balance will be due 1 month before the wedding. This can all be completed online.

Once things are official I will send you my Bride Guide in the mail to welcome you and walk you through everything you need to know leading up to your wedding day.

The guide includes tips and info on achieving the perfect wedding day timeline, how to handle family photos, preparing for your engagement photos, and other helpful information. I will also be sending out a questionnaire about 6 weeks before your date to get a better feel for your wedding day vision.

That's about it! Planning your wedding will be one of the most exciting and stressful times of your life. I'm here to make sure planning your wedding photography is a breeze. Sit back, relax, and know that I am here with you every step of the way!
