

Brief Pricing & Package Brochure

Hi, I'm Bri, owner, lead videographer & editor at Red Pine Films. I'm honored at the chance to film your special day.

Your wedding day should be everything that you hoped it would be. A time of love, fun, and making incredible memories. The best way to share in those memories is through your wedding film...that's where we come in.

We want to help guide you through your wedding day so that you not only have fun but have a wonderful wedding film to enjoy forever. Let's laugh, smile, and make amazing memories!

We'd be honored to film your day!

We offer 1 all inclusive videographer package!

With our package, you will receive a highlight film which includes all the highlights from your wedding day (think like: getting ready, first looks, walking down the aisle, your first kiss, your vows, couple photos, the cake cutting, the speeches, and the dances).

Packages Feature...

- 8-10 hours of coverage
- 2 videographers
- Drone footage by licensed drone pilot
- Separate video of ceremony & speeches in addition to highlight film

The Finances...

We understand the financial aspect of planning a wedding. We believe that videography is not only an integral part of your wedding day but for countless years to come as you get to relive the best day of your lives.

Reach out to us to get a custom quote and receive our complete pricing and package brochure. Every couple is unique, which means no two weddings are the same. We get that which is why we want to work with you and offer the option of custom pricing and packages.
