Classic Roxbury Farm Event and Wedding Venue

Ceremonies

Elopement, Tiny Wedding, Micro Wedding, Pop-Up Wedding, however, you want to label them, small weddings are trending more than ever as savvy couples opt to find a less expensive alternative to the traditional affair. We love small intimate weddings! The spontaneity, the romance, and the excitement that comes when you plan a quick wedding, bypassing the stress of organizing all those details and guests for months and months. Planned elopements and small ceremonies are perfect for many reasons; a second marriage, to save money and time, to reduce stress or you just don't have that many people you want to invite!

Something Else?

While some package includes some services, we offer a few in-house services and options to help with your planning and day-of setup, saving you some time and money. These options can be added to any package during your planning as your ideas, needs and budget start coming together.

Optional Extras :

- Lets Talk and Discuss. Because this is a private property and Family operated we can be bit more flexible for some extras for minimal fees

Book your site visit with us today to secure your date. If we didn't think of something you need, please let us know.

We do not provide catering. You may choose your favorite or do-it-yourself. We encourage you to be creative and make the event unique.

The property does not need a lot of "dressing up", it is beautiful as is and simple touches of floral and greenery on the tables and ceremony area are sometimes all you need.
