Marital Education (10 sessions taught virtually)$750

- This is not counseling! This is an educational program taught live, one-on-one to help you prepare for your futures together as a couple. It is tailored to your individual relationship and what you want to learn
- Sample topics covered: understanding what commitment means for you; how to prevent conflicts; how to move through them; how to forgive when needed; learning how to communicate needs, wants and desires in a way that enlists the aid of your partner rather than putting them on the defense; words of advice from happily married couples after 25+ years of marriage; and more
- Online assessment fee of $40 is additional and paid directly to the administrator of the assessment
- Couples who are already married or living together can also benefit from the information covered
- For states that require 2 additional sessions and a notarized certification of completion to meet requirements for discounted licenses, add $125.

Relationship Coaching (per hour)$50/Hr

- Coaching can be for any of the following:
 - A deeper look at a particular topic during marital education
 - Help with communication styles and conflict resolution
 - Couples already married who have fallen out of love and would like to re-ignite the spark

Additional fees may apply for some ceremony rituals, additional requests of my time, supplies needed to perform a particular part of a ceremony, and/or travel outside of the Chippewa Valley in Wisconsin*

Please inquire about other services offered: vow renewals, commitment ceremonies, baptisms, end of life services and elopement packages that include an officiant, photographer, venue and minimoon location*
