

True Cinema Wedding Films

We are so grateful that you are considering True Cinema Wedding Films for your wedding. We want your film to be as personal as possible because your story is your story, not ours and we want you to see yourselves in the story of your day. We don't make cookie-cutter wedding films so these simple questions will help us to get to know you better, giving us ideas and story-telling points to focus on when we make your film.

1. Please list 3 things that will be unique about your wedding.
2. Please explain how the two of you met and list any interesting things about your love story that you want us to know.
3. What part of the wedding day are you looking forward to the most?
4. Are you writing your own vows?

5. Are you considering seeing each other before the ceremony to take photos?

6. Are you giving each other any gifts the morning of the wedding? You don't have to divulge details, obviously.

7. Are there any events prior to the ceremony that require coverage (besides the bride & groom getting ready)?

8. How many guests are you expecting?

9. Where will the bride be getting dressed (and approximate distance from ceremony)?

10. Will there be any special performances at the reception?

11. How important is cinematography to you in planning your wedding? (Scale 1-10)

12. What is your budget for cinematography?

13. What would you say is the one thing about our films that you enjoy the most?

14. How did you hear about us?

15. Do you have any special requests that you'd like to see in your wedding film?
