Major congrats on your recent engagement! I'm so honored that you're considering having me spend your wedding day along side of you! Wedding videography is a lot of things, but most of all it's an investment in someone to capture and document your wedding day.

When the wonderful day is done, the cake has been eaten, the dress hung, you are left as newlyweds with your wedding videos.

Spend some time reviewing this guide. If after reading this, you feel like we'd be a great match for each other, let's either over coffee or via Facetime to discuss your needs & vision for your wedding!

About Me

K E L L Y   E D W A R D S

This is the story of a wedding photographer who fell in love with video! In 2012 I followed my dream and started photographing weddings, and I have loved every minute of it! Two years ago I began to learn the art of videography and after shooting my first few weddings in video, I was hooked! I love how much more love, joy, and tenderness is translated through film and I want to help you capture the same at your wedding. Most days you can find me homeschooling my kids in yoga pants and working on the couch with a smile on my face and baby in my lap.

I am a wife to my hunky husband Grey and I love bragging about him and his awesome 4x4 supermod shop. My videography style is raw, real, and authentic. I will do anything to make you laugh! I make it simple for you, keep it light, and focus on the precious candid moments that naturally occur between two people who are madly in love. Years from now, I want you to look at your wedding videos and have all of those memories to come flooding back. The bliss, sentiment, light, and laughter from the day you wed.
