

PLANNING + COORDINATION + DESIGN

This service is a complete planning, coordination, and design service. Our planners and designers will walk you through all aspects of creating your wedding day. Service includes unlimited in person or phone meetings to discuss design, budget, and wedding day needs. Vendor choices, candid discussions, and priceless advice is offered with this service. We will keep you on task, offer advice and reminders, and be on hand for any need that might arise. We will help to ensure that all vendors and other participants are working together for you and your guests. Please call or email us for more details on our Event Planning, Coordination, and Design. The investment is determined by size, location, and scope of the wedding day and associated event(s).

PLANNING + COORDINATION

This is a thorough planning and coordination service. We will walk you through all aspects of planning your event. Simply, you tell us what you want, and we will help you secure it. We will keep you on task, offer advice and reminders, and be on 'on call' with guidance. We will be at your wedding from start to finish, and conduct your rehearsal. We will help to ensure that all vendors and other participants are working together for you and your guests. Please call or email us for more details on our Wedding Planning and Coordination. The investment is determined by size, location, and scope of the wedding day and associated event(s).

COORDINATION

For the planner in us all! You have planned your wedding, but you need someone to ensure everything happens the way you expect. This is a coordination service agreement between us and you. Simply, you provide the details and we take care of the execution. Please call or email us for more information regarding our Wedding Coordination services. The investment is determined by size, location, and scope of your wedding day.
