

A Classic Country Setting for Your Dream Come True Wedding!

Your wedding day is something that you've fantasized about since you were tugging on your mother's apron strings. You may have dreamed of your gown, thought about who your guests will be, imagined the flowers in your bouquet and even thought about the words of your ceremony. Perhaps you pictured a ride in a horse drawn carriage out in the beautiful countryside of New England. The Salem Cross Inn offers a unique and memorable experience that can help to make your fantasy become a reality.

Our expert wedding coordinators will guide you through the entire process. Our chefs take great pride in customizing your wedding menu. The freshest ingredients available are used as they prepare everything from scratch. A friendly and efficient staff will tend to every detail on your special day.

And we have more to offer here at the Salem Cross Inn. Our gazebo, overlooking a breathtaking 600 acres of rolling meadows, is an amazing site for an outdoor ceremony. You may choose to order from set menus or we will be happy to customize to your desires. Our delicious wedding cakes are homemade by our baker. Horse drawn carriage rides are also available. You may even want your meal prepared in our fireplace. The possibilities are endless with us.

Allow us the opportunity to leave an imprint of your wedding day in the minds of you and your guests. Everyone can have an experience that will leave fond memories for years to come!

Please contact Nancy Salem or Donna Bennett for more information!
