

What you'll find at Milagro Farms:

- Magnificently landscaped wedding grounds with walkways and fountains
- Three-thousand square-foot rustic barn under heat and air
- Forty-foot, Santa Fe-style colonnade (covered bridal walkway) and pergola back-dropped by a wooded grove
- Weekend Bed and Breakfast
- Outdoor courtyard for smaller celebrations and rehearsal dinners
- Fruit Orchard, wooded groves and fields perfect for photography sessions
- The Back Door: catering outside the ordinary
- Rental day begins at 8:00 am and ends at midnight giving brides fourteen hours for set up and celebrations

A Few More Details:

Milagro's barn is rustic - with unexpected elegance - giving celebrations a sense of both antiquity and style. There is a bridal loft (a preparation room for the bride and her attendants) and a balcony where couples may be presented and the bride can toss her bouquet to the waiting party below. Included in the barn are public restrooms and a work area where caterers can put the finishing touches to their meals.

La Casita, our southwest "little house," is the perfect place for the groom and groomsmen prepare for the ceremony.

With the barn and wedding grounds, options are limitless. Couples can marry inside the barn and party outdoors, or have the ceremony at the pergola then move the celebration inside.

And there's more - the wedding grounds are set behind the mission-style La Hacienda (main house). Bedrooms at Milagro's Bed and Breakfast are available for overnight stays. La Hacienda is beautifully landscaped and there's a patio for additional celebrations (rehearsal dinner, bridal luncheon). Price packages can include one to all three rooms and/or patios.
