Of course most activities are centered in the Grand Ballroom, the largest of its kind in central Texas. The polished oak floor spans over four thousand square feet (two average houses could fit inside!) and the ceiling soars to thirty feet. You may utilize the Ballroom for both dining and dancing, and a band or DJ can set up on the large curtained stage. The room is dramatically illuminated with vintage bronze and crystal wall sconces, for a total of seventy candlelight bulbs and a thousand sparkling crystal drops!

The Formal Dining Room features dramatic classical columns and expansive bay windows. Victorian couches and period tables and chairs furnish this lovely space.

The Victorian Parlor features a fireplace and antique furniture. Chairs and sofas are clustered for relaxed and easy conversation.

The Library features a collection of Texana, including books by and about notable women. It is a comfortable retreat with antique sofas and armchairs.

In the nineteen-thirties and forties, the Georgian Room was an operating tea room. The original hat-check stand is there, along with hardwood flooring and wall sconces. It is basically a ballroom in miniature, with tall, elegant windows and a vaulted ceiling.

*The Mansion hosts only one event at a time. Even if you choose not to reserve the entire space, be assured your event is the only one happening. Except for support staff, you and your guests have use of the Mansion exclusively.
