Foley Hall

Foley Hall (above) is a very adaptable space that is often used for banquets.

Our Mainstage Theatre has been the scene of weddings, business meetings, seminars and more.

The Springer has many elegant and varied rooms and spaces available for rent. These include, but are certainly not limited to, the 700-seat Emily Woodruff Hall (Mainstage Theatre), Foley Hall (a banquet hall), the Veranda (a New Orleans style balcony that is a beautiful setting for an outdoor event with a roof that offers protection from the rain), the second-floor Museum, the Learning Center, the McClure Garden (a formal garden with a fountain at one end) and the ever-popular Player's Saloon. The Springer Mainstage (the 700-seat Emily Woodruff Hall) with its phenomenal

A very popular rental space, the Saloon is not as large as the Mainstage Theatre or Foley Hall, but can accommodate 60 diners in a romantic historical setting.

acoustics and regal seating is great for recitals, performances, lectures and other events. Although general used for traditional semi-formal productions, it has been the setting for a wide variety of events, from rock concerts to opera to a tribute to Queen (the band not the monarch, although it would work great for that as well).Among the types of events that have been held in the Springer’s Mainstage Theatre:

- Corporate and Association Events
- Non-profit Organizations
- Weddings
- Birthday Parties
- Concerts
- School-Related Events
- Proms
- Engagement Portraits
- Marriage Proposals
- Company Anniversaries
- Business Meetings
