Rehearsal dinner coverage/pre-wedding coverage is a great way to document more time with the friends and family who have traveled to celebrate with you. Coverage is strongly candid, however this is also a great opportunity for some informal family and friend portraits, photos of the two of you, and/or video coverage and messages from those in attendance. Generally most couples find that photo coverage is sufficient, however if you're planning a more structured dinner with speeches - or you'd like to document messages from guests to incorporate into your final film, video coverage is strongly encouraged.

Photo coverage can be added to any booked package for $585 and combination coverage can be added for $1,170.
