About Us

We are a family owned and operated team formed from the joining of passionate people who love to plan and celebrate life's special events. After planning her own destination wedding; our owner decided to help other couples on their big day with her unique skill set and resources, hence Dani Cymone Events was born in 2018.

We also work with several other wedding vendors, such as photographers, caterers, DJs and make-up artists, so that all services are coordinated smoothly to minimize the stress on every couple we serve.
