about us

Catalina has worked in the events industry since 2009 for various nonprofits, museums, and higher education institutions in the Greater Boston area. Throughout that time, they have gained valuable connections with industry-leading experts and vendors, and figured out creative ways to get the most value from a budget - guaranteeing that the events they produce are filled with unforgettable moments.

In 2015 Catalina started Champagne & Confetti where she has designed and produced many in person and virtual events both big and small for discerning clients. Catalina uses their creativity and years of experience to make your special day turn out exactly how you want it.

Catalina loves to travel internationally and locally - exploring new dining spots around Boston and beyond. Passionate about accessible art, Catalina loves supporting and collecting art from young and up-and-coming talent. She's also a miniaturist - you might see Catalina selling her minis at art shows around New England!
