

Package One:

Wedding Day Management $1100

This is for the bride that is seeking coordination for the day of the wedding. Our wedding day management begins with your rehearsal, ensuring that all involved in your wedding knows exactly what they are to do. You will also receive a full day of management on the day of your wedding which includes overseeing vendors and assisting with set-up and tear down, creating a time-line so everyone involved in your special day will know what time everything is taking place, making certain that everything is as you have chosen and according to your plan, and making sure when the day comes to an end that everything agreed upon with the venue is done. Stop worrying about who is going to set up your ceremony / reception items and make sure everything is ready before guest arrival. This package will free you of any worries on your special day and will ensure that every detail is taken care of. Wedding day management is meant to make your day completely stress-free.

Package Two:

Mini Princess & Wedding Day Management $1300

This is a month of coordinating package. This is for the bride that has everything planned but is concerned that something might have got missed. A month before the wedding we go over everything that the bride has done. That includes everything from all the vendors that have been booked, all rentals, and all orders. We make sure that nothing has been forgotten or looked over. We discuss everything that has been planned for the day of the wedding.

If something has been missed we help get it done and tie up any loose ends. With this package, brides also receive wedding day management which includes everything listed in the wedding day management package.

Package 3:

Partial Princess & Wedding Day Management $1600

This package is designed for the bride that has some of the planning done and wants help finishing up. Whether it is not enough time or just too stressed, we step in and take up the planning process from the bride has stopped. With this package, brides also receive wedding day management which includes everything listed in the wedding day management package.

Package 4:
