POST PRODUCTION

Everything I capture includes professional editing involving color correction, exposure, noise reduction, sharpening and more. Every single image gets individual attention, including more complex retouching when necessary.

DELIVERY & OWNERSHIP

Weddings are delivered on a flash drive. Engagements are shared via transfer link. All photos are saved at high resolution for printing and a lower resolution for easy viewing, sharing and uploading on social media. I grant my clients permission to duplicate, print, post on personal social media accounts, or share any provided images. I do not offer printed albums at this time.
